

Hertings were delighted to attend the London Construction Awards as a finalist for Supplier of the Year the category that is aimed at any supplier in the built environment that has demonstrated success, innovation or notable achievement in the past 12 months, a supplier that always goes the extra mile for clients and can offer a product or service that stands head and shoulders above your competitors

The London Construction Awards celebrates achievements, developments and innovation across London's booming construction industry and features a wide range of categories for solution providers, suppliers, contractors, architects, civil engineers, developers, local authorities and more.

The winners of the London Construction Awards were announced at a glittering awards ceremony in London on 23rd September. Hosted by award-winning comedian Simon Brodtkin, over 350 guests from across the industry watched as winners were announced in twenty categories.

Although unsuccessful in achieving London Construction Award Winner, we are incredibly grateful to be included in the finalist list and pass on our congratulations to all those who were presented the prestigious accolade.
